ORDER

Re: ECF No. 49

14 Before the court is Plaintiff's Motion to Review All Medical Files in Cell. (ECF No. 49.)
15 Defendants have opposed Plaintiff's motion. (ECF No. 51.) To date, no reply memorandum has been 16 filed by Plaintiff.

17 Plaintiff claims that he needs a copy of his medical records in his cell to properly prepare a
18 response to the dispositive motions. Defendants state that Plaintiff can simply kite to review the 19 records, but he is not entitled to possess the records under Administrative Regulation (AR) 639.

20 Pursuant to Nevada Department of Corrections Administrative Regulation 639 (revised on 21 July 27, 2021), an inmate is prohibited from possessing any portion of their medical file on their
22 person, in their cell, or on the yard. Plaintiff may kite the Warden's office to review his medical 23 records and may take whatever notes he deems appropriate. The Attorney General's Office shall 24 ensure that Plaintiff is given a reasonable opportunity to review the records.
